DESCRIPTION

Red brick 'corner' pub with slate roof. All doors and windows are semi-circular-arched (which would have matched the original railway station opposite). With prominent string course at first-floor level. Previously known as Station Hotel/Railway Hotel. No significant external alterations.

HISTORY AND CONNECTIONS

Built in the same year as the railway opened. Forms group with 1886 railway station, former railway station stables (LB421989), and goods shed (LB421988)
