PRIVATE T. J. WEAVERS, OF WIVENHOE.

We regret to record that official intimation has now been received of the death of Private T. J. Weavers, of Wivenhoe (attached to Essex Regiment), who has been reported as wounded and missing for some months. Private Weavers, who was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Weavers, of Wivenhoe, joined up at the outbreak of the war, and went to France in September, 1916. He was killed in action on October 23, 1916, aged 25. The parents have received a message of sympathy from the King and Queen. A letter from deceased's chum says that he was loved by all the regiment and that he died a brave hero, his end being glorious.
